INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action brought by Plaintiff on his own behalf and on behalf of similarly situated employees, alleging violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. 17. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to the institution of this action and/or conditions have been waived.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

19. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of overtime pay, spread of hours pay, failure to provide the required wage notice at the time of hiring would injure Plaintiff and similarly situated employees and violate state and federal laws.

20. From November 8, 2010 to November 5, 2016, Plaintiff was hired by Defendants to work as a cook and kitchen staff for Defendants' restaurant located at 120-38 Queens Blvd. Kew Gardens, NY 11415.

21. During this period, Plaintiff worked six days per week on the following schedule: 6:00pm to 3:00am on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday; 11:00am to 3:00am on Sunday; and 4:00pm to 3:00am on Tuesday. Plaintiff did not receive any breaks. Plaintiff therefore worked at least sixty- three hours (63) hours per week.

22. Regardless of Plaintiff's hours worked, he was paid a flat monthly rate: $500 per week from November 8, 2010 to January 31, 2011; $550 per week from February 1, 2011 to January 31, 2012; $600 per week from February 1, 2012 to January 31, 2013; $650 per week from February 1, 2013 to January 31, 2014; $700 per week from February 1, 2014 to January 31, 2015; $750 per week from February 1, 2015 to October 22, 2016; $800 per week from October 23, 2016 to November 6, 2016. Plaintiff was paid in cash.

23. Plaintiff was not required to utilize any means of recording or verifying their hours worked (e.g. punch clock, sign-in sheet, fingerprint or ID scanner).

24. Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff for overtime compensation according to state and federal laws.

25. Plaintiff was not compensated for New York's "spread of hours" premium for shifts that exceed ten (10) hours, two (2) days each week.

26. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with a wage notices at the time of their hiring

27. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

28. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of overtime and the “spread of hours” premium would economically injure Plaintiff and the Class Members by their violation of federal and state laws.

29. While employed by Defendants, Plaintiff was not exempt under federal and state laws requiring employers to pay employees overtime.

30. Plaintiff and the New York Class Members’ workdays frequently lasted longer than 10 hours.

31. Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and other Class members’ New York’s “spread of hours” premium for every day in which they worked over ten (10) hours.

32. Defendants failed to keep full and accurate records of Plaintiff’s hours and wages.

33. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and other Class members with written notices about the terms and conditions of their employment upon hire in relation to their rate of pay, regular pay cycle and rate of overtime pay. These notices were similarly not provided upon Plaintiff and other Class members’ pay increase(s).

34. Defendants committed the foregoing acts against the Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Plaintiff.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

35. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees either the FLSA overtime rate (of time and one-half), or the New York State overtime rate (of time and one-half), in violation of the FLSA and New York Labor Law and the supporting federal and New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

36. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying the New York State “spread of hours” premium to Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

37. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by the Defendants for up to the last three (3) years, through entry of judgment in this case (the “Collective Action Period”) and whom failed to receive spread-of-hours pay and overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week (the “Collective Action Members”), and have been subject to the same common decision, policy, and plan to not provide required wage notices at the time of hiring, in contravention to federal and state labor laws.

38. Upon information and belief, the Collection Action Members are so numerous the joinder of all members is impracticable. The identity and precise number of such persons are unknown, and the facts upon which the calculations of that number may be ascertained are presently within the sole control of the Defendants. Upon information and belief, there are more than ten (10) Collective Action members, who have worked for or have continued to work for the Defendants during the Collective Action Period, most of whom would not likely file individual suits because they fear retaliation, lack adequate financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims. Therefore, Plaintiff submits that this case should be certified as a collection action under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §216(b).

39. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Collective Action Members, and have retained counsel that is experienced and competent in the field of employment law and class action litigation. Plaintiff has no interests that are contrary to or in conflict with those members of this collective action.

40. This action should be certified as collective action because the prosecution of separate action by individual members of the collective action would risk creating either inconsistent or varying adjudication with respect to individual members of this class that would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interest of the other members not party to the adjudication, or subsequently impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

41. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since joinder of all members is impracticable. Furthermore, inasmuch as the damages suffered by individual Collective Action Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation makes it virtually impossible for the members of the collective action to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. There will be no difficulty in the management of this action as collective action.

42. Questions of law and fact common to members of the collective action predominate over questions that may affect only individual members because Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to all members. Among the questions of fact common to Plaintiff and other Collective Action Members are:

- a. Whether the Defendants employed Collective Action members within the meaning of the FLSA;
- b. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members overtime wages for all hours worked above forty (40) each workweek in violation of the FLSA and the regulation promulgated thereunder;
- d. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members spread of hours payment for each day an employee worked over 10 hours;

- e. Whether the Defendants failed to provide the Collective Action Members with a wage notice at the time of hiring as required by the NYLL;
- f. Whether the Defendants' violations of the FLSA are willful as that terms is used within the context of the FLSA; and,
- g. Whether the Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, punitive, and statutory damages, interest, costs and disbursements and attorneys' fees.

43. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a collective action.

44. Plaintiff and others similarly situated have been substantially damaged by Defendants' unlawful conduct.
